

The literal meaning of Islam is peace; surrender of one's will i.e. losing oneself for the sake of God and s

The prime message of Islam is the Unity of God, that the Creator of the world is One and He alone is Islam believes that each person is born pure. The Holy Quran tells us that God has given human being In Islam virtue does not connote forsaking the bounties of nature that are lawful. On the contrary one Islam teaches that the path to spiritual development is open to all. Any individual who searches the O
At present there are 1.5 billion Muslims worldwide and they form the majority in more than 50 countries

courtesy of Islam.com